

Dear KFT community,

We are really pleased that Pastor Magdalena Schwartz who has been organizing efforts to assist immigrants in the Valley who are being dropped off at bus stations by ICE will be in Flagstaff this Saturday!

Please join us for a presentation at the East Flagstaff Public Library, Saturday, from 10-11. She will focus on how folks in Flagstaff can help out.

Please spread the word!

Magdalena Schwartz is a Pastor in Mesa, AZ and also serves as the President of the East Valley Christian Leaders Alliance.

Pastor Schwartz is one of the main coordinators in the Phoenix area, organizing efforts to assist immigrants in the Valley who are being dropped off at bus stations by ICE. She will speak about the various ways people in Flagstaff can help with the needs of these individuals and groups.

Pastor Schwartz has been assisting migrants in the Valley since 1998. She was recently recognized with an award from the AZ Interfaith Movement for her work.

For more information call: (928)773-4937.