Beacon SJA (Social Justice Allies) History Timeline & Collaboration List

Compiled by Roz Clark 07/15/20 DRAFT 2

June, 2012

General Assembly in Phoenix; focus on immigration social justice Nearly 40 Beacon folks attended all or part

Late fall, 2012

Launched 1st steps of Initiated CBCO (Congregation-Community-Based Organizing) to eventually determine social justice priorities

2013

- Named ourselves Social Justice Allies
- Began collaboration with NAIC
- Received matching grant from UU Funding Program for 1 year's dues to local CBCO affiliate,
 NAIC
- Engaged in CBCO training
- Initiated City Council Watch(dog)
- Approved congregational Public Stance in support of families of undocumented immigrants

Fall, 2014

In collaboration with NAIC, No. AZ Dream Fund and Dreamers in Action, with Full Circle Trade and Thrift Grant: raised $12,245 benefitting Flagstaff's young immigrants.

2015

- Became official member of UUJAZ
- Broadened leadership base by forming SJA Steering Committee, which met between monthly SJA meetings

2016

- CBCO process to determine issues for Beacon social justice priorities
- Public Stance in support of local efforts toward non-violence
- Public Stance in support of efforts toward reform that provides a living wage for local workers.
 Action: Created a table that compared/contrasted the Flagstaff City and AZ state ballot initiatives

2017

- Lead effort to develop Beacon Policies and Procedures for Political Activity, based on the
 - UUA's The Real Rules (IRS Guidelines on Advocacy, Lobbying and Elections)
- In collaboration with Beacon Adult RE, presented "Literature of the Borderlands" a community series on 4 Saturday mornings in July and August. It was planned and lead by Dr. Chuck Tatum, part-time Beacon friend and Emeritus Professor of Spanish at the U of AZ.

Winter/Spring, 2017-18

Co-sponsored a four-film series with some members of Keeping Flagstaff Together, focusing on democracy and public engagement.

2018

- Beacon Board of Trustees approved Policies and Procedures for Political Activity.
- Promoted, collected and delivered a truckload of school supplies for Killip Elementary School

Winter, 2019

In a meeting that included longtime SJA regulars, some who had been on sabbatical, a few newbies, and Rev. Robin, we discussed and approved a shift in SJA's structure to a Mobilizing Task Force rather than a monthly meeting group.

Spring, 2020

When Beacon cancelled all in-person activity in March (due to the Corona-19 virus), plans for the launch of "Activate" were also halted. Numerous community organizations had been invited to participate.

Over the years (June, 2012-June, 2020), SJA has collaborated with:

- No. AZ Interfaith Council (NAIC)
- No. AZ Dream Fund (funds application fees for DACA applicants)
- Dreamers in Action
- Killip Elementary School
- Flagstaff Trade and Thrift (a local thrift store)
- No More Deaths
- UUJAZ (UU Justice AZ) network
- Keeping Flagstaff Together
- Somos America (collects food and travel supplies for immigrants—including babies and toddlers traveling from Phoenix bus station eastward, usually at least 2-3 days ride!)
- League of Women Voters